

An Amazing Welcome

When I saw you in the crowd, I waved and wondered, "Is he a lonely child?"

Well I couldn't have been so right, I ended up showing you around all night!

I showed you around the city hall,

And buildings, they were OH SO TALL!

Next thing you know you stare at the school,

And I said, "wouldn't you rather go to the pool?"

"BZZZ!" Said the bees,

"CHIRP" Said the birds singing the trees.

We will be the best of friends!

I don't think our friendship will ever end.

And then I realize you were smiling the whole time,

But you didn't even speak once, like a mime!

And then I finally hear you speak,

You say "Im probably staying here for more than a week!"

I feel so happy you're going to stay!

"So...do you want to go play?"

After all... you are going to stay!
