

We are a Rights Respecting School - w/c 06.07.2020

Article 17 - Access to information from the media

Every child has the right to reliable information from a variety of sources, and governments should encourage the media to provide information that children can understand.

Governments must help protect children from materials that could harm them.

We are a Rights Respecting School - w/c 06.07.2020

In your work books, write the date, title and draw the thought bubble. Write your ideas all around it.

Exploring Article 17

HOW MANY OF THESE DID YOU GET?

- To know that not everything you read is true.
- To help you learn about where information comes from.
- To be able to discuss information you find, with people you trust.
- To learn about bias and 'fake news'.
- To know that it's okay to ask more questions if something doesn't seem right.
- To be aware that people have lots of different opinions.
- To learn the difference between a fact and an opinion.
- To feel confident to say 'I'm not sure if that's true'.
- To know that some people deliberately put false information online.

What else did you think of?

We are a Rights Respecting School - w/c 06.07.2020

All these activities are related to...

Write down all the places you can get reliable information from.

School has changed a lot over the years, have a go at this Horrible Histories quiz! What did you learn about children's education in the past?

Using household items, build a 'newsroom' and be a newsreader for the day, reporting about the day's events in your house

What would a species from another planet need to know when they arrived on planet earth? Write them a welcome letter, telling them ten things they need to know, to feel welcome and be safe on planet earth. Where will you find reliable information to include in the letter?

You don't need to do every single activity but if you have time you can do more than one.

We love that you love learning at Alexandra! You are also so great at researching and teaching each other. Keep accessing information and learning from it but make sure you are doing it in a safe way 😊

#allinthistogether #teamalexandra